Export Oriented Units has welcomed the measures taken by the Government to revamp the Scheme and has suggested that Cash Compensatory Support may be extended to the production of these units with a view to increasing the export potential. Cash Compensatory Support is presently being granted on supplies made to the 100 per cent Export Oriented Units from the Domestic Tariff Area. The suggestion of the Association is for- an alternative arrangement related to the output of these units. No decision has been taken on the request.

SHRI DHARAM CHANDER PRASHANT:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item captioned 'Indian official spied for U.S.' which ap peared in the time of India of the 3rd October. 1987;

(b) whether Government have ordered or propose to order an enquiry into matter to find out the truth; and

(c) if not, what 're the reasons there-' for?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI BUTA SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir. The Government have seen the relevant news item.

(b) and (c) The news-item is based on an extrac! from recently published book entitled 'Veil The Secret Wars of CIA-1981-87' by Bob Woodward. The book does not identify any Indian official who is alleged to have spied for United States of America. Government do not also have information to confirm these allegations.

Schemes for Optimum use of Reservoirs

2550. SHRI KAILASH PATI MISHRA;

SHRI ATAL BIHARI VAJPAYEE:

Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) whether in the context of National Water Management, any study or evaluation has been made of the Ganga-Cauvery Link proposal of Dr. K. L. Rao, Himalayan and Garland-Canal Schemes of Captain Dastur and Telugu-Ganga Scheme, for optimum use of river waters;

(b) if so, what are the findings, conclusions and follow-up action taken on the basis of the study; and

(c) which are the States which will be benefited by the implementation of the Schemes and the quantum of water to be made available to such States?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES AND THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI RAM NIWAS MIRDHA): (a) to (c) The Ganga-Cauvery link proposal of Dr. K.L. Rao and the Garland Canal Scheme of C.iptain Dastur have been examined. The first scheme would require large blocks of power for lifting water whereas the second scheme was evaluated to be technically unsound and economically prohibitive. As an alternative to the above mentioned proposals, a National Perspective, involving construction of storages and interlinking of rivers with a view to divert surplus water to deficii regions his been formulated with two components. The Peninsular rivers development component of the scheme is under study by an agency set up for this purpose. The Telugu Ganga Scheme is a specific project proposed by a State Government and does not fall under the above categories
